

Vehicle Identification

Serial Numbers

The frame (VIN) and engine serial numbers will be required when you register your motorcycle. You may also need this information when ordering parts, make sure to keep these numbers in a safe spot.

Frame number (VIN- Vehicle Identification Number) can be found on the left side of the front forks stamped into a metal plate.

Frame serial number

Engine number can be found stamped into the left side of the crankcase.

Engine serial number